DETAILED ACTION

Final Rejection

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

1. Claims 1-7, as best understood, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claims 1-7, "a frame member" and "the frame member" is refereeing to 11, 16, 12, 15 or other member.

Claims 1-7 are confusing and are not clear because claimed limitations, (claim 1, opposite faces which face each other, provided in one of a front portion and a rear portion of the vehicle; a longitudinal direction of the frame member (are there more than one longitudinal direction of the frame?), when impact on the frame member in the longitudinal direction of the frame member is anticipated or imposed; claim 6, the frame member is a side frame member), are not shown in the figures and/or lacks support in the specification and therefore fails to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. These limitations must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). Applicant is requested to go through the application and ensure that the claimed matter has been described in the specification and shown in the drawing in such a way as to convey to one skilled in the art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. Correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC $ 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless --

- (b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.
- 2. Claims 1-7, as best understood, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Negado (3,831,921).

Regarding claims 1-7, as best understood, Negado (3,831,921) discloses in Fig. 1-5 the invention as claimed to include a frame member shown Fig 1 (to include

10) having opposite faces Fig 3 which face each other, provided in one of a front portion, a rear portion or side frame member of the vehicle (see abstract - adapted to a surface to be protected); and a load imposing device 18, provided at an end of the frame member, for imposing a load on the opposite faces of the frame member toward at least two opposite directions which are substantially perpendicular to a longitudinal direction of the frame member, when impact on the frame member in the longitudinal direction of the frame member is anticipated or imposed; imposing device has a coil spring 18; wherein the load imposing device is wound along an outer-peripheral wall of the frame member.

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments filed 2/11/05 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Response to the arguments is provided in the above rejection.

Conclusion

2. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
